

June 2014

Insurance - Ireland

“The Irish insurance industry has been hit hard in recent years as consumers responded to the pressures of the economic downturn by forgoing, cancelling or downgrading cover. However, Mintel’s consumer data indicates that Irish consumers remain committed to being adequately covered. Thus, the expectation is that economic recovery will bring ...