Sustainability in Travel - UK

“As brands compete closely on price, product and ease of booking, an ethical reputation can be a key point of differentiation. The ‘next normal’ will see consumers demand an increased standard of sustainability transparency, where travel companies are expected to provide information proving exactly how they are working towards climate-positivity ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook Q1 - UK

“Even before the conflict in Ukraine, inflation had become the biggest concern for consumers, brands and the British economy for 2022. Households are set to endure the biggest squeeze on real incomes in decades, and the conflict in Ukraine will only add to existing inflationary pressures. This is seen in ...

Sustainability in Beauty & Personal Care - UK

“Although consumer awareness of environmental issues is a cause of anxiety, the proportion buying eco-friendly BPC products has not changed significantly in recent years. Consumer confusion and cynicism around green claims underpin this, highlighting the need for universal industry standards and regulation around eco claims, particularly as many also defer ...

Everyday Sustainability - UK

“Despite a highly positive self-assessment of their own eco-credentials, as climate change continues to worsen it is apparent that people are not leading anywhere near sustainable-enough lifestyles. While the consumer is particularly keen to hold businesses responsible for the preventing further environmental damage, more can be done to drive behavioural ...
