The Ethical Traveller - UK

“More travellers are likely to adopt the ‘flexitarian’ approach to flying that we are seeing in dietary habits – choosing to take lower carbon forms of transport or stay in the UK for some, but not all, of their holidays. Travellers want to feel their holidays are helping local people ...

Holiday Review - UK

“The Thomas Cook collapse has had no impact on travellers’ faith in the package holiday market. However, many will be cautious when booking a package holiday, trusting their holidays to the hands of well-known companies that provide high quality customer experiences.”
